

International Conference

Manuscript & Memory in Northwestern Europe, 1000-1500

Groningen & Ter Apel Monastery, 14-15 November 2008

Programme

Groningen, Friday 14 November – 9.15-17.00

Open Universiteit Groningen, Oude Boteringestraat 24, 9712 GH Groningen

9.45: Renée Nip (Groningen) – Introduction

10.00: J.P. Gumbert (Leiden) – Keynote lecture: What Do We Want to Remember? Memories in the Manuscripts of Two Dutch Monasteries

11.30: Alison Beach (William and Mary) – The Chronicle and Necrology of Petershausen: Imagining a Community of the Living and the Dead in a Time of Reform

12.00: Mary Swan (Leeds) – Past and Present in Post-Conquest Old English Religious Manuscripts

13.30: Georges Declercq (Brussels) – History, Memory and Remembrance in Libri Traditionum and Early Cartularies

14.00: Jeroen Deploige (Ghent) – Accumulating Stories of Memorable Members. The Liber de gestibus virorum illustrium of the Cistercian Abbey of Villers on the Fringes of Hagiography and Historiography

15.00: Thom Mertens (Antwerp) – Memory and Reward. Middle Dutch Collections of Convent Sermons and the Motives of Their Editors

15.30: Anne Bollmann (Groningen) – Memoria im Wandel. Zur Gestaltung von Erinnerung bei den modernen Devoten

16.00: Nikolaus Staubach (Münster) – Keynote lecture: Texttypologie und religiöse Reform: Funktionen von Schriftlichkeit in der Devotio moderna

Ter Apel Monastery, Saturday 15 November – 9.30-17.00

Boslaan 3-5, 9561 LH Ter Apel

10.00: Carmela Vircillo Franklin (Columbia) – Memory and Scriptorium Practice: The Evidence from an Echternach Charter and its Material Preservation

10.30: Steven Vanderputten (Ghent) – Forgetting the Past in High Medieval Flanders: Individual Experience, Collective Remembrance and the Politics of Monastic Reform

11.30: Elisabeth van Houts (Cambridge) – The Logistics of Commemoration: The Example of Queen Edith/Matilda of England (d. 1118)

12.00: Truus van Bueren (Utrecht) – Grand Donations and Nice Gifts? The Search for Gender Related Patterns in Medieval Memoria Practices

13.30: Koen Goudriaan (Amsterdam) – Memorial Celebration in the Utrecht Chapter of Tertiaries: An Aspect of Monasticization?

14.00: Sabrina Corbellini (Groningen) – The Spirit of Remembrance: Memorial Practice and Spiritual Education in Female Religious Communities

15.00: John Van Engen (Notre Dame) – Keynote lecture: Cultivating Memory in Personal Practices and Written Lives: The Case of the Modern-Day Devout

The Conference is positioned within the activities of the international research community Remembrance in writing and practice in religious communities in the Low Countries, 1000-1500 (NWO).

Registration fee: 50 € (incl. refreshment breaks, two lunches, receptions and conference packs). A free bus service will be provided to and from Ter Apel for both the speakers and participants.

Contact: R.I.A.Nip@rug.nl or Jeroen.Deploige@ugent.be

For more detailed information see the website:

<http://www.chma.ugent.be/manuscriptandmemory>

rijksuniversiteit
groningen

